MUDDY GOING AT LATONIA

STAR JASMINE SCORES WITH EASE IN THE PRINCIPAL RACE OF THE DAY.

Muriel's Pet Provides an Upset-T. J. Brown Re ported to Be Piling Up Trouble for Some Trainers.

Cincinnati, O., June 14.—Rain, which followed the runing of the third race, detracted from the sport at Latonia this afternoon. Previous drenchings that the track had received brought about a change in the going and caused many withdrawals. The card on the whole was a fairly good one, with a dash at one mile engaging a quintet of good ones as the feature. The attendance was surprisingly large for Monday and the volume of wagering was also of satisfactory proportions. In the feature race T. C. McDowell's consistent Star Jasmine scored over Bayberry Candle and John Guad. Jockey Dreyer Has a Leg Broken at Jamaica-Madden Sells Sam McMeekin to Hildreth.

New York, June 14.—Perfect weather conditions prevailed at Jamaica today and an unusually good card of races for an off day resulted in an enjoyable afternoon's sport. One of the best races on the program was the third, at a mile and a sixteenth, for three-year-olds, in which all of the original five accepted the issue. Norse King, showing the most speed from the start, was returned the winner after he had dominated the running throughout. Double Eagle was in a contending position while rounding the first turn, but the Lemaire colt drew away into a safe lead while going down the backstretch and lasted it out well. Double Eagle, after being in strenuous pursuit all the way, was easily second best, was invested for the features.

Issted it with the way, was easily second best.

What was intended for the feature race resulted in the first accident of the meeting, in which in the first accident of the meeting, in which jockey J. Dreyer, who has been riding in good form of late, suffered a broken leg. In attempting to go to the front Regina crowded Fernrock, which was on the inside, and Variety, racing on the heels of Fernrock, had to pull up sharply. Dreyer was forced against the inner rail and unseated. Once in front, Regina held sway to the end, with Fernrock second by a narrow margin over the fast coming Success.

O'Sullivan won his second victory at this course when he scored over Ben Quince in the fifth at one mile and an eighth. The MacManus horse was easily best, for, after meeting with repeated interference, he got through on the inside on the stretch turn and drew away quickly in the stretch. Prince of Como had an easy time in winning the first over Damrosch.

Lockey Borel was incapacitated from riding today of Como had an easy time in winning the first over Damrosch.

Jockey Borel was incapacitated from riding today on account of strenuous reducing while on the road this morning.

Several arrivals were noted from the half mile tracks in Maryland. They included Dick Pending, who brought the horses Paton and Hiker; jockey Roscoe Troxler and M. C. Kelly.

John E. Madden has sold the three-year-old Sam McAteckin to S. C. Hildreth. As Mr. Madden had previously refused an offer of $15,000 for the colt, it is likely that he secured a considerable advance over that figure. Mr. Madden has also disposed of Saratoga to Dave Leary.

Harry Shaw, William Kerryhart and Larry O'Brien will denart for Ottawa tomorrow.

George Odom has taken over the four-year-old horse Harry Shaw to train for Morris & Perry.

It is notable that four of the contenders entered for the Southampton Handicap to be run tomorrow were originally in the stable of John E. Madden, Phosphor and Sam McMeckin are both out of Milliful mares, Mirthful being the first stallion that Mr. Madden had at Hamburg Place. Sharpshooter and The Finn are from mares by Star Shoot, which is at present standing at Hamburg Place.

Ernest Hall, paddock judge at Bowle, was an arrival today and reports that the grading contract that was let at the Bowle track will be completed long before the fall meeting. The work is progressing rapidly. The work includes the cutting down of the hill in the centerfield which interfered with a view of the horses as they rounded the far turn.

HEAVY SHOWERS AFFECT BLUE BONNETS.

Will Cash Runs to His Name-Bushy Head Show Improvement-Chicago Sporting Man Dies

Montreal, Que., June 14.—There was not much of high class to the program offered at Blue Bonnets this afternoom, but the fields were well balanced and interesting contests resulted. A change in the going resulted in some withdrawals, the three-quarters' selling handicap suffering most from this cause. Heavy showers that fell overnight made the going lumpy and slow, but as the afternoon progressed the footing improved.

A "good thing" was put over in the second race when H. O. Comstock's Will Cash galloped home with a long lead over his opnoments after leading all the way. The colt was run in blinkers this afternoon and the change in equipment produced a big improvement in his running. Will Cash ran like a fairly good colt and will undoubtedly earn more brackets on the Canadian circuit.

Bushy Head, after his disappointing race of Saturday, when he was beaten off by Cuttyhunk, came back with a good performance this afternoon. He was one of the field of nine that started in the fourth race, a mile dash out of the chute. Taplin rated him behind the pacemaker this afternoon and never made a move under well into the homestretch. At the end he was going away fast, but in the last sixteenth swerved over in front of Carbide. The latter was beaten at the time and the interference, if there was any, cut no figure in the cash.

e interference, if there was any the result, the result, Gray Planet, the gray jumper that races in the lors of A. Henry Higginson and Chester Krum, e property of a local turfman, D. Raymond, will slipped to Brookline tomorrow. The former will started in the races for hunters, while Chester run will fill his engagement in the Chamblet emorial Steenlechase. the property be shipped to Brooken be shipped to Brooken be started in the races for human the Change Krum will fill his engagement in the Change Memorial Steeplechase.

ning of the steeplechase from the stewards' stand. Clinton Colby, member of the Chicago bookmaking firm of Smith, Jones and Colby, who was stricken with an attack of pneumonia several days ago, died at the Royal Victoria Hospital Sunday night at 8 o'clock, Before his death Mr. Colby expressed a desire that his remains be cremated. His brother in California has been informed of his death and it may be that the body will be shipped to Chicago. In the latter event, young Richard Jones will accompany the remains west.

Jockey Ted Rice, who suffered a serious accident when he fell while riding the two-year-old Phil Ungar, has sufficiently recovered to leave the hospital. Rice is still in a bad way and he will leave for his home at La Porte, Ind., to rest until fall Rice's valet will accompany him home.

The mutuel machines have certainly scored a big success at Blue Bonnets. On Saturday the take was close to $150,000 and it is estimated that $25,000 was shut out through lack of facilities for accommodating the vast crowd that was present. The management is much elated over the outlook and it has already been decided to place six more machines in the enclosure for the fall meeting. Fifty additional feet will be added to the present betting enclosure during the summer.

A. G. Weston will leave for Ottawa tomorrow morning with the division of the Presgrave-Clydestring that he will race in Canada during the remainder of the season.

Sheridan Clark, who has been engaged by the Connaught Park Jockey Club to act as racing secretary, returned to Ottawa tonight with a big hatch of entries for the opening day. Mr. Clark reports that the Connaught Park course has been treated to a covering of carbon calcite and that the fooling is much improved as compared with last season. He expects good horses to run a mile in about 1:40 during the meeting.

ing arrived this morning and were distributed among the horsemen by Joseph McLennan.

H. G. Bedwell will divide his stable at the conclusion of the Blue Bonnets' meeting, sending a division to Ottawa in charge of William Short. The remainder of the string will be taken by Mr. Bedwell himself to Hamilton.

Ken Walker announces that he has already secured several entries to the autumn yearling sale of the Kentucky Sale Co., for which this firm have already claimed dates, and this sale of youngsters will be held next autumn on Monday and Tuesday, October 18 and 19.

At Jamaica Friday jockeys E. Dugan and M. Buxton were reported by Patrol Judge Hanna for crossing over on the backstretch in the second race. They were cautioned by Steward C. J. Fitzgerald and told that no rough riding would be tolerated. They promised to keep their mounts straight in the future.

Trainer J. T. Weaver has given out that he now thinks his mare Gowell, winner of the Latonia Derby in 1913, will once more stand training and he now has her taking mild exercise. He will make no effort to get her ready to race before fall, as he means to give her every chance to improve in soundness before he puts her in real active training again, J. C. Milam has so far purchased no yearlings this year. He and his racing partners bought thirty-three head last year; one died and he has sold sixteen, which leaves him at present in his training barn sixteen two-year-olds. He will go slow with purchases this year, at least until he unloads a good part of the two-year-olds he now has in his charge. The second consignment of the difford Cochran
